

Summer Sermon Series

Barbara Brown Taylor, the best-selling author of Leaving Church, reveals how to see the sacred in our everyday life in her new book, An Altar in the World. Throughout the summer, Student Minister Ken Weidinger, Scholar In Residence Sarah Melcher and Pastor & Teacher Keith Haithcock will preach a summer sermon series based on this book. This series will lead us through twelve weeks (June 20th through September 5th) on the following themes:

- The Practice of Waking Up to God: Vision
- The Practice of Paying Attention: Reverence
- The Practice of Wearing Skin: Incarnation
- The Practice of Walking on the Earth: Groundedness
- The Practice of Getting Lost: Wilderness
- The Practice of Encountering Others: Community
- The Practice of Living with Purpose: Vocation
- The Practice of Saying No: Sabbath
- The Practice of Carrying Water: Physical Labor
- The Practice of Feeling Pain: Breakthrough
- The Practice of Being Present to God: Prayer
- The Practice of Pronouncing Blessings: Benediction

We will also offer a study group on this book during the Sunday Morning Bible Study, held at 9:00 a.m. in Room 102. We encourage those who want to form their own self-led discussion/study group to do so. We hope that opportunities for conversation and interaction with the book, scriptures and sermons will arise in a relaxed manner over the summer.

A limited number of copies of the book are available for purchase at the Church for $13, or you may purchase a copy through your local bookstore or borrow through your Public Library.
